

Clues

Data bias in AI occurs when an AI model produces unfair or skewed outcomes, often due to unbalanced or non-diverse training data.

This can lead to the model unintentionally favoring certain groups or perspectives. Ensuring diverse and representative datasets helps mitigate such biases.

⇒ To return to the game, close this window, by clicking on the X.

1/1